COTSWOLD HOMES & INTERIORS FESTIVAL

SATURDAY 21ST & SUNDAY 22ND MARCH

WELCOME TO THE COTSWOLD HOMES AND INTERIORS FESTIVAL!

This two-day festival showcases the wonderful and diverse homes and interiors businesses in Cirencester and the wider Cotswolds.

There will be trade stands in the Corn Hall and Market Place, selling a wide range of products from soft furnishings to ornaments and art.

The festival's main hub is the Corn Hall but other activities will be taking place around the town centre in participating businesses.

A TRUSTED GATHERING OF DESIGN, STYLE & CRAFTSMANSHIP

Explore a highly curated collection of exhibitors showcasing everything from artisanal furnishings, bespoke textiles and lighting to sustainable home solutions and renovation services.

Whether you own a heritage property or a contemporary home, you'll discover inspiration suited to your space.

TALKS, WORKSHOPS & EXPERT INSIGHT

At the Festival you'll find a full programme of specialist sessions — from illuminating keynote talks by design authorities to hands-on workshops that let you try something new. Highlights this year include an audience with Laurence Llewelyn-Bowen and an interview with Pooky Lighting CEO, Rohan Blacker.

Whether you're planning a full-scale remodel or a room refresh, you'll gain practical take-aways to bring into your own home.

Details on our Talks & Workshops can be found in this programme, but if you would like more information, you can Scan this QR Code, or visit our website www.cotswoldhomesfest.co.uk

EXPERIENCE CIRENCESTER & THE COTSWOLDS

The Festival's main venue is at the Corn Hall. With activity spilling out into Cirencester's charming town-centre locations — including the Market Place and boutique shops — you'll immerse yourself in the spirit of Cotswold design and lifestyle.

It's the perfect opportunity to combine design inspiration with a visit to one England's most picturesque regions.

WORKSHOPS AROUND TOWN

NEW BREWERY ARTS

Beginners Machine Sewing - Make your own Pyjama Bottoms (9-13 Years)

Lauren Holloway

Date Saturday 21st March

Time 10.15am - 3.15pm

Ticket £75

Join designer maker Lauren Holloway on this day workshop to learn how to sew a pair of pyjama bottoms.

In this workshop Lauren will teach you the fundamentals of dressmaking. You will learn how to read and understand commercial patterns and how to adapt a pattern to get a perfect fit as well as get to grips with waistbands, hemming, joining straight and curved seams, and pattern matching to achieve a professional finish.

Over the course of the day, you will get to grips with waistbands, hemming, joining straight and curved seams, and pattern matching to achieve a professional finish.

You will leave this workshop with the confidence to pursue further sewing projects and with a pair of high quality, well fitting pyjama bottoms to enjoy wearing.

Seagrass Footstool Weaving

Felicity Tran

Date Saturday 21st March

Time 10am - 4pm

Ticket £110

Join Felicity Tran, traditional upholsterer and seat weaver, to learn this beautiful heritage craft.

The one-day workshop is designed so you can complete your footstool and take it home to treasure at the end of the day. You will weave the gorgeous 'Herringbone style' pattern on a local artisan made beech wood frame with sustainable seagrass cord.

Felicity teaches in an engaging, friendly and informal way, with an emphasis on being productive.

You can enjoy this mindful craft whilst chatting with your co-attendees and leave with a sense of immense achievement having made a piece of useable, professional quality furniture.

Ceramic Animal Platters

Rhi Jarman

Date Saturday 21st March

Time 10am - 4pm

Ticket £100

Join ceramic artist Rhi Jarman to design, create and decorate your own ceramic animal platter.

During the workshop, Rhi will support you to develop and sketch ideas for your animal platter and to create a template for your chosen design. This will involve rolling a clay slab and cutting and shaping the piece. You will learn a variety of techniques to decorate your platter, including methods for drawing, adding details and texture, and painting your design, as well as adding colour with oxide and underglaze.

Your finished piece will be glazed and stoneware fired following the class for you to collect. It can be used as a decorative or functional plate or platter, or even hung on the wall to enjoy as a piece of art!

THE OLD DEPARTMENT STORE

Sewing Workshop

Date Saturday 21st March

Time 10.30am - 12.30pm
12.45pm - 2.30pm

Ticket £20

Location Ground Floor

Remnant Revolution is hosting a special collaboration with local, renowned interior designer Nadia Oliver at their Come Sew With Us pop-up, as part of the Cotswold Homes and Interiors Festival.

Join us for a Cushion Making Workshop & Introduction to Creating a Beautiful Home, where practical sewing meets thoughtful design. You'll create a bespoke cushion cover using Nadia's beautiful, high-quality remnant fabrics, while she shares insider tips on how small, considered homeware choices can quietly elevate a space and make it feel more personal and lived-in.

£1 from every class and every item sold during the pop-up will be donated to Stroud Women's Refuge. Every stitch, workshop and purchase helps support local women and their children with safety, support and hope.
